It seems a singular coincident that the eldest son of the venerable old pioneer, Dr. Hermann-long since deceased, should be placed in a position to fulfill the predictions of his father relative to Coos county. And when we review step by step the remarkable progress and advancement of Coos county and the development of her great resources during the past few years, the result of the untiring efforts and incessant labors of Hon, Binger Hermann, who has so faithfully served his constituency during his terms in congress, we can but recall the explict faith of Dr. Hermann, in the future outcome of the country in which he cast his early lot and with his sturdy fellows battled so nobly for its civilization and development.
